

Manure Management Planner Registry Application/Renewal Form

The Manitoba Institute of Agrologists in cooperation with Manitoba Environment, Climate and Parks maintains the Manure Management Plan (MMP) Registry as an information service to the public. The MMP Registry is the primary source of information regarding qualified and approved service providers.

As a third-party Manure Management Planner, it is your responsibility to remain up to date concerning Livestock Manure and Mortalities Management Regulations. Please refer to the department for information and updates.

Please submit the following to admin@agrologistsmanitoba.ca:

1. Manure Management Planner course transcript copy
2. Proof that you are one of the following:
 - Registered Agrologist (P.Ag., Tech.Ag. or Agrologist-in-Training)
 - Hold the designation of Certified Crop Advisor (CCA) and are in compliance with the program requirements and carry-on business as a crop advisor in Manitoba.
3. Payment of required registry fee.
 - Registered Agrologist - $25.00/year
 - Non-Member - $75.00/year (by cheque payable to Manitoba Institute of Agrologists or if online payment is preferred, please email admin@agrologistsmanitoba.ca)

Being qualified and listed in the MMP Registry does not mean you are exempt from the requirement to become registered with Agrologists Manitoba if you are providing advice about the production, use, or marketing of agricultural products, crops, or livestock. For further information, see "Practicing Agrology in Manitoba – Questions about Registration".

Application
Deadline
September
15, 2022

The Manure Management Planners Registry will be updated with your name and contact details as applications are received and approved.

Applications or renewals not received by September 15, 2022 will be removed from the registry.
